VOLUNTEERS: THE SPARK BEHIND 4TH OF JULY AT THE CHERRY CREEK ARTS FESTIVAL

WHAT: Each year 350,000 guests visit the Cherry Creek Arts Festival to enjoy a one-of-a-kind art experience during 4th of July weekend. Behind the artists, performances and activities is a team of volunteers working with staff to produce an award-winning and truly world-class festival. If you are looking for event experience or you simply love delicious food, great music, and first-rate art, the Cherry Creek Arts Festival volunteer team has a spot for you! Following a brief training, volunteers are join teams devoted to artist relations, production, culinary demonstrations, festival ambassadors, the annual art auction, and more.

WHEN: Registration begins June 1, 2011
2011 Cherry Creek Arts Festival is held July 2, 3, & 4, 2011

WHAT ELSE: Volunteering with the Cherry Creek Arts Festival is a lasting experience. In fact, the volunteer team includes five, ten and twenty year volunteer veterans who prefer the behind the scenes experience and artist interaction. They like the volunteer t-shirt and the free meals--but they love the experience. Registration info and more can be found at www.cherryarts.org/volunteer.
