THE CHERRY CREEK ARTS FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES THE CULTURAL PAVILION!

DENVER, CO: June 24, 2010

The Cherry Creek Arts Festival will celebrate its 20th Anniversary by bringing the cultures of the world to Cherry Creek North! This year's festival features the Cultural Pavilion, which will host demonstrations and workshops from the artistic traditions of Japan, Latin America and Africa.

Saturday the Cultural Pavilion will celebrate Japan and will feature ambassadors from Denver's sister city, Takayama, Japan. They will perform Japanese Musical Theater, demonstrate traditional Kimono dress, host Japanese Tea Services and more!

In conjunction with the 2010 Biennial of the Americas, on Sunday the Cultural Pavilion will celebrate the performing art of Latin America. Groups to perform include the Suzanna School of Belly Dance Arts and the kids of Academia de Ballet Folklórica Netzahualcoyotl.

Monday will feature performances by the Heritage African Drum and Dance group. In between dance shows, the Cultural Pavilion will host student art presentations to an "Art Jury," as part of the Janus Student Art Buying Program.

For the full schedule, visit www.cherryarts.org. Stop by the Cultural Pavilion anytime during the festival on Clayton Street between 2nd and 3rd avenues for fascinating family fun!

About the Cherry Creek Arts Festival

The Cherry Creek Arts Festival (CCAF) weekend event is a world-class and award-winning celebration of the visual, culinary and performing arts, and enjoys an attendance of 350,000 visitors over the 3-day event. CCAF annually takes place 4th of July weekend, and the 20th Anniversary CCAF is July 3, 4, 5, 2010. CCAF gives patrons the FREE, rare and special opportunity to meet and talk with international visual artists, sample fine cuisine, visit special exhibits and artist demonstrations, and entertain their families with interactive 'Activities' and exciting performing arts. CCAF is proud to be considered Colorado's signature cultural event and to be a nationally top-ranked and award-winning art show annually – both in the visual artist and special event/festival industries.

Together Through Art! CCAF is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit corporation whose mission is to provide access to a broad array of arts experiences and support arts education in Colorado. Along with the arts festival itself, CCAF fulfills its year-round art education and outreach mission through programs including the Mobile Art Collection, Artist in Residence programs and the Janus Student Art Buying Program. Other mission-based events produced by CCAF include the Telluride Festival of the Arts and Cherry Creek North Food & Wine.
