THE CHERRY CREEK ARTS FESTIVAL ANNOUNCES PERFORMING ARTS!

DENVER, CO: June 22, 2010

From the Reggae beat of Healing Force, to the Island Jazz of John Coelho, to Denver's favorite rockers, Opie Gone Bad, there is music for all tastes at the 20th Anniversary Cherry Creek Arts Festival! In addition to a variety of visual and culinary arts, the festival also provides a collection of the performing arts for the whole family to enjoy. Live performances can be found throughout festival hours on the Janus Main Stage, the Beer Garden Stage and the Wine Pavilion Jazz Stage. And you have to see Festival Nights on Fillmore Plaza, featuring the perennial festival favorite, Opie Gone Bad, on the night of Saturday July 3rd from 8:00 p.m. to 10:00 p.m. Come Together Through Performing Art -- don't miss out on the fun and check out the exciting line-up of performers below! For stage schedules or more information about the performing artists, please visit our website at www.cherryarts.org.

About the Cherry Creek Arts Festival:

The Cherry Creek Arts Festival (CCAF) weekend event is a world-class and award-winning celebration of the visual, culinary and performing arts, and enjoys an attendance of 350,000 visitors over the 3-day event. CCAF annually takes place 4th of July weekend, and the 20th Anniversary CCAF is July 3, 4, 5, 2010. CCAF gives patrons the FREE, rare and special opportunity to meet and talk with international visual artists, sample fine cuisine, visit special exhibits and artist demonstrations, and entertain their families with interactive 'Artivities' and exciting performing arts. CCAF is proud to be considered Colorado's signature cultural event and to be a nationally top-ranked and award-winning art show annually – both in the visual artist and special event/festival industries.

CCAF is a 501(c)(3) not-for-profit corporation whose mission is to provide access to a broad array of arts experiences and support arts education in Colorado. Along with the arts festival itself, CCAF fulfills its year-round art education and outreach mission through programs including the Mobile Art Collection, Artist in Residence programs and the Janus Student Art Buying Program. Other mission-based events produced by CCAF include the Telluride Festival of the Arts and Cherry Creek North Food & Wine.
